Scripture: Scripture in the service is from the ESV translation, unless otherwise noted.

THE LORD GATHERS THE NATIONS

We believe that the Triune God – Father, Son, and Holy Spirit – calls the world to worship Him. As a Christian community, we gather together on the first day of each week to worship Him as we are led by the Spirit. As we worship, we bring our praise and our concerns, our joys and our sorrows, our hopes and our troubles.

Reflection on Worship

but it loves and knows the One who is leading.”*

Call to Worship

Psalm 147:1, 5, 7a

Leader: Praise the Lord! For it is good to sing praises to our God; for it is pleasant, and a song of praise is fitting.

Great is our Lord, and abundant in power; his understanding is beyond measure.

Sing to the Lord with thanksgiving.

My Country, 'Tis of Thee

Text (vs. 1) by S. F. Smith. Music: Thesaurus Musicus, © 1745. UBP CCLI #3038781.

My country, 'tis of thee
Sweet land of liberty, of thee I sing
Land where my fathers died,
Land of the pilgrim's pride
From ev'ry mountain side
Let freedom ring

My Savior, praise to Thee
Giver of liberty, of Thee I sing
Your cross where sin was paid
Your tomb where life was made
Your vict'ry now displayed
Let freedom ring

This is My Father's World

*Words: Maltbie D. Babcock. Music: Arranged by Franklin Sheppard.
UBP CCLI #3038781.*

This is my Father's world; and to my listening ears
All nature sings, and round me rings the music of the spheres
This is my Father's world; I rest me in the thought
Of rocks and trees, of skies and seas; His hand the wonders wrought

This is my Father's world; the birds their carols raise
The morning light, the lily white; declare their Maker's praise
This is my Father's world; He shines in all that's fair
In the rustling grass I hear Him pass; He speaks to me everywhere

A Mighty Fortress is Our God

Words and Music by Martin Luther, 1529. Public Domain.

A mighty fortress is our God; a bulwark never failing
Our helper He amid the flood; of mortal ills prevailing
For still our ancient foe doth seek to work us woe
His craft and power are great, and armed with cruel hate
On earth is not his equal

Did we in our own strength confide; our striving would be losing
Were not the right Man on our side; the Man of God's own choosing
Dost ask who that may be? Christ Jesus, it is He
Lord Sab-a-oth, His Name, from age to age the same
And He must win the battle

That word above all earthly powers; no thanks to them, abideth
The Spirit and the gifts are ours; thru Him Who with us sideth
Let goods and kindred go, this mortal life also
The body they may kill: God's truth abideth still
His kingdom is forever

Monthly Memory Verse

Romans 10:9

If you confess with your mouth that Jesus is Lord and believe in your heart that God raised him from the dead, you will be saved.

Prayer for Children

[Children's Worship is available for children 4 years to 3rd grade]

THE LORD REVEALS HIMSELF TO THE WORLD

God calls the nations to follow him primarily through the reading and exposition of His inspired, infallible, and inerrant word as contained in the Old and New Testaments.

We believe that the Scriptures teach what man is to believe concerning God and what duty God requires of man.

Come People of the Risen King

*Authors, Keith & Kristyn Getty, Stuart Townend. ©2008 Thankyou Music/Adm.
By worshiptogether.com songs. UBP CCLI #3038781.*

Come people of the Risen King
Who delight to bring Him praise
Come all and tune your hearts to sing
To the Morning Star of grace
From the shifting shadows of the earth
We will lift our eyes to Him
Where steady arms of mercy reach
To gather children in

*Rejoice, Rejoice! Let every tongue rejoice!
One heart, one voice; O Church of Christ, rejoice!*

Come, those whose joy is morning sun
And those weeping through the night
Come, those who tell of battles won
And those struggling in the fight
For His perfect love will never change
And His mercies never cease
But follow us through all our days
With the certain hope of peace

Chorus

Come, young and old from every land
Men and women of the faith
Come, those with full or empty hands
Find the riches of His grace
Over all the world, His people sing
Shore to shore we hear them call
The Truth that cries through every age
“Our God is all in all”!

Chorus

THE LORD CALLS HIS PEOPLE TO PRAY

Throughout Scripture, God's people are called to pray through adoration, confession, thanksgiving, and supplication. As we come to the Lord in prayer, we are placing our dependence and trust in the One who forgives, who cares, and who strengthens.

Congregational Prayer

Isaiah 1:18

Leader: Come now, let us reason together, says the Lord: though your sins are like scarlet, they shall be as white as snow; though they are red like crimson, they shall become like wool.

The following prayer may be used as an example.

Father, we confess that we have not loved You perfectly in our actions, thoughts, or lifestyles. We have sinned in not trusting You and the authority You have placed over us. Help us today to see our sin and to run to You, as You are our gracious Father. Forgive us in our failure as a child, a parent, or a worker. Help us to experience the redemption we have in Christ as we continue to seek You. In Jesus' name. Amen.

Mission of the Month: The Mission of Winter Haven

Battling Cancer: Curtis Guise & Susie Fuday

Health Issues: Carol Dortman, Lillian Steverson Kelder, Marilyn Smith, Blossom Warren, Vera Castleberry, Rick & Rosie DeCoito, Bill Roldan, Pat Moss, Brenda Donnell

THE LORD PROVIDES OUR DAILY BREAD

Worship includes returning to God and His work a portion of our material possessions as tithes and offerings. We ask Him to use the generosity of His people to continue and to advance the work of His church.

Offertory Scripture

Psalm 54:6

Leader: With a freewill offering I will sacrifice to you; I will give thanks to your name, O Lord, for it is good.

Jesus, Your Name

Words & Music by Keith & Kristyn Getty and Ian Hannah. ©2004 Thankyou Music/Adm. by worshiptogether.com. UBP CCLI #3038781.

Jesus, Your name, Prince of Peace
Quiets my soul, treasures the least
In perfect rest You will keep all whose hope is in You
Jesus, Your name can silence the storms
The strivings that trouble our world
Jesus, Your name reveals You as Lord
Oh, powerful name

Jesus, Your name, Counsellor
Wonderful Way, Life's Comforter
Spirit of Truth defending me, though in me was the blame
Jesus, Your name has stood in my place
And freed me from hopeless shame
Jesus, Your name now father's me
With joy I bear His name

Jesus, Your name, Mighty God
All Pow'rful One, ruling in love
There is a King upon the throne earth cannot overthrow
Jesus, Your name great banner of hope
Steadies the knees of the weak
Jesus, the name all nations will praise
Oh, glorious name

THE LORD COMMUNES WITH HIS PEOPLE

The climax of our worship is sitting at the Table with the Lord. We come to the Table full of thankfulness and joy because of His grace. As the perfect Lamb of God, Jesus' sacrifice reconciled us to the Father so that we are in a right relationship with him.

Distribution of the Bread and Cup

Bread: Gluten free bread is located in the cups within the basket.

Cup: The outer ring is wine, the inner rings are juice.

What is Communion?

Communion is also known as the Lord's Supper. The bread represents the broken body of Christ and the cup represents the blood Jesus poured out as the Sacrificial Lamb (see 1 Corinthians 11:23-26).

When we celebrate this feast, we commune with the risen Lord Jesus who stands as our host to offer spiritual nourishment, renewal and life. We also participate together in the reconciling grace of God.

Who can take Communion?

We warmly welcome to the table all who have publicly professed their faith in Jesus – trusting in His once-for-all sacrificial death upon the cross.

At Cypress Ridge, we ask children to wait to take communion until they have met with the elders to share their faith in Jesus.

If you have not yet professed faith in Jesus, we encourage you to spend this time reflecting on the prayers below.

Prayer for those searching for the truth

Lord Jesus, You claim to be the way, truth and life. If what You claim is true, please guide me and teach me. Give me an understanding of who You are, and open up my heart so that I may have faith in You. Amen.

Prayer of faith

Lord Jesus, I admit that I am more sinful than I ever believed, but through You, I am more loved and accepted than I ever dared to hope. I thank You for paying my debt, bearing my punishment on the cross. Knowing that You have also been raised from the dead, I turn from my sins and receive You as my Savior. Amen.

THE LORD SENDS US OUT INTO THE WORLD

God does not save us simply from something. He saves us to something ... to be His messengers of redemption to a lost and fallen world. He sends us out redeemed, loved, and with a purpose. We are called to bear witness to what He is doing in our lives where we live, work, and play. Praise be to God!

Benediction

2 Corinthians 13:14

“May the grace of the Lord Jesus Christ and the love of God and the fellowship of the Holy Spirit be with you all” ... both now and forevermore!

Unison Response:

Christ has died!

Christ has risen!

Christ will come again!!!

Choral Response

Tri-fold Amen

Thoughts on Memorial Day – written by Joe Johnston

More than 1.1 million men and women have died in wartime throughout the span of our nation's history. To put that in perspective, that's more than the populations of San Francisco, Boston, Seattle or Washington, D.C. In fact, more people were killed in World War II alone than currently live in New Orleans. This, of course, does not begin to take into account those who were wounded or went missing. That number is closer to 2.8 million, just slightly more than the city of Chicago.

These numbers should truly humble us, as they represent people—individuals—who were brothers, husbands, mothers, sisters and friends. These were people woven into the fabric of communities across the nation. They were loved. They were mourned. And now they are missed. It is tough when you send your loved ones off to war. You watch them disappear out of your line of sight, knowing it may very well be the last time you will see them. Hug them. Tell them you love them. But this has been a stark reality for many families in this country. So, too, have been the telegrams, the middle of the night phone calls and the chaplain standing at the front door of the next of kin to tell them that their loved one has been killed.

It is all too easy for those who have never suffered such losses to see past the holes that were left in the families and communities. That's simply human nature. As Franklin D. Roosevelt once said, "Those who have long enjoyed such privileges as we enjoy forget in time that men have died to win them." But Memorial Day is a chance to reconnect to the genesis of our nation's innumerable freedoms. Our way of life has been shaped and made possible by those who have served—and by those who were lost.

Working together with friends, neighbors, veterans groups and entire communities, we can ensure that the sacrifices made by our nation's finest and bravest never go unappreciated and that their memories are never forgotten!
